

HONOR SYSTEM

---

Students take all written examinations and complete any specifically designated assignments under the honor system. By committing themselves to the honor system, all students accept responsibility for assuring the integrity of the examinations and assignments conducted under it.

Regulations governing academic integrity and other related information and resources are located on the Graduate Academic Integrity System website (<https://gradhonor.rice.edu/>).