

FACULTY SENATE APPROVED PROPOSALS

The Rice University Faculty Senate is a representative body of the university faculty formed to investigate, discuss, and decide on matters concerning the academic affairs of the university. A listing of Faculty Senate approved proposals, including undergraduate programs and policies, graduate programs and policies, faculty policies, and additional information may be found on the All Approved Proposals tab of the Faculty Senate website (<https://senate.rice.edu/approved-proposals/all-approved-proposals/>).
