Policies for the BA Degree with a Major in Ancient Mediterranean Civilizations

Transfer Credit

For Rice University's policy regarding transfer credit, see Transfer Credit \(https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/academic-policies-procedures/transfer-credit/\). Some departments and programs have additional restrictions on transfer credit. The Office of Academic Advising maintains the university's official list of transfer credit advisors on their website: <https://oaa.rice.edu>. Students are encouraged to meet with their academic program's transfer credit advisor when considering transfer credit possibilities.

Program Transfer Credit Guidelines

Students pursuing the major in Ancient Mediterranean Civilizations should be aware of the following program-specific transfer credit guidelines:

- Request for transfer credit will be considered by the program director (and/or the program's official transfer credit advisor) on an individual case-by-case basis.

Distribution Credit Information

The determination of distribution eligibility is done initially as part of the new course creation process \(https://registrar.rice.edu/facstaff/courseprocess/\). Additionally, as part of an annual roll call \(https://registrar.rice.edu/facstaff/distribution_credit/\) coordinated each Spring by the Office of the Registrar, course distribution eligibility is routinely reviewed and reaffirmed by the Dean's Offices of each of the academic schools.

Faculty and leadership in the academic schools are responsible for ensuring that the courses identified as distribution-eligible meet the criteria as set in the General Announcements \(https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/academic-policies-procedures/graduation-requirements/#text\). Students are responsible for ensuring that they meet graduation requirements \(https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/academic-policies-procedures/graduation-requirements/#text\) by completing coursework designated as distribution at the time of course registration.

Opportunities for the BA Degree with a Major in Ancient Mediterranean Civilizations

Academic Honors

The university recognizes academic excellence achieved over an undergraduate's academic history at Rice. For information on university honors, please see Latin Honors \(https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/honors-distinctions/university/\) (summa cum laude, magna cum laude, and cum laude) and Distinction in Research and Creative Work \(https://ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/honors-distinctions/university/\). Some departments have department-specific Honors awards or designations.

Distinction in Research and Creative Work

Students who wish to be considered for Distinction in Research and Creative Work in Ancient Mediterranean Civilizations must complete a thesis. A committee drawn from Ancient Mediterranean Civilizations faculty will evaluate the thesis for distinction according to the following criteria. Although students may draw on work done in previous courses, the thesis must present substantially new research based on primary sources (in translation), archaeological and visual materials, or some combination of them. The thesis should be at least thirty pages long, with additional formal bibliography and footnotes. It must locate its argument and importance in scholarly discussion. Theses will be written during the two semesters of the senior year. Before beginning the thesis, students must consult with the Director of the Ancient Mediterranean Civilizations program, no later than the spring semester of the junior year.
