BACHELOR OF ARTS (BA) DEGREE WITH A MAJOR IN CLASSICAL STUDIES

Program Learning Outcomes for the BA Degree with a Major in Classical Studies

Upon completing the BA degree with a major in Classical Studies, students will:

1. If they pursue the Classical Languages specialization, be proficient at reading Greek and Latin and have articulate knowledge of the grammar and style of both languages.
2. Understand texts, artifacts, institutions, events, personalities, and places that are integral to ancient Greek and Roman culture.
3. Be able to analyze, interpret, and think critically about those texts, artifacts, institutions, events, personalities, and places.
4. Be able to situate those texts, artifacts, institutions, events, personalities, and places in their historical and cultural contexts.
5. Be able to relate classical civilization to the world around them, and to appreciate the profound influence classical civilization had on later Western civilization.

Requirements for the BA Degree with a Major in Classical Studies

For general university requirements, see Graduation Requirements (ga.rice.edu/undergraduate-students/academic-policies-procedures/graduation-requirements). Students pursuing the BA degree with a major in Classical Studies must complete:

- A minimum of 10 courses (30 credit hours) to satisfy major requirements.
- A minimum of 120 credit hours to satisfy degree requirements.
- A minimum of 60 credit hours outside of major requirements.
- A minimum of 2 courses (6 credit hours) at the 300-level or above.
- The requirements for one area of specialization (see list below). The Classical Studies major offers two areas of specialization:
  - Classical Languages (p. ), or
  - Classical Civilizations (p. )

The Classical Studies program offers instruction in the Greek and Latin languages, in Greek and Roman literature (studied in the original and in translation), in the classical civilizations surveyed as a whole, and in particular themes, genres, and periods of classical culture and their influence through subsequent ages. We cater to students who wish to prepare for graduate school in classics and also to students who are interested in Greek and Roman culture for other reasons and wish to take a less specialized approach. The program provides maximum flexibility without sacrifice of focus. Students will be able to explore ancient Greece and Rome from a variety of different angles and with whatever emphasis best suits their individual needs and goals.

The courses listed below satisfy the requirements for this major. In certain instances, courses not on this official list may be substituted upon approval of the major’s academic advisor, or where applicable, the department’s Director of Undergraduate Studies. (Course substitutions must be formally applied and entered into Degree Works by the major’s Official Certifier.) Students and their academic advisors should identify and clearly document the courses to be taken.
