Sport Management is an interdisciplinary field of study that draws from a wide range of academic disciplines, including business, management, law, and communication. The thoroughly interdisciplinary emphasis of the sport management major aims to educate students in the skills and theory necessary to assume leadership roles both in and out of the sport industry.

Career preparation for leadership and entrepreneurial positions is the ultimate goal of the sport management major at Rice. Students will acquire a solid academic and practical foundation and thus will be competitive for opportunities that include entering the sport business industry or applying to the country's best law and business schools.

Along with the department of Statistics, and the Data to Knowledge (D2K) Lab, the department of Sport Management additionally oversees the Sport Analytics major (https://ga.rice.edu/programs-study/departments-programs/social-sciences/sport-analytics/#text).
