The President's Honor Roll, published each semester, recognizes outstanding students. To be eligible, students must have earned grades in a total of 12 or more semester hours without receiving a grade of F. Courses taken as Pass/Fail may not be counted for the purposes of this rule. Approximately the top 30 percent of undergraduates receive recognition each semester. While undergraduates enrolled in a four-year bachelor's degree program are always eligible for the President's Honor Roll, students enrolled in five-year bachelor's or master's programs are eligible only during their first eight semesters.
